“ Vince, you were loved beyond belief! I couldn't imagine my life without you as my friend! You had the knack of always being there for me, no matter how many days it took you to get there! You seemed to relish in pissing me off, just to watch the fireworks, yet no matter how many times you did so, I knew you were always going to have a permanent place in my heart! Those places were reserved for a select few, like Brad, Danny and of course, you! Not many people have ever meant as much to me, or ever will! You were with me at some of my best moments in life and in some of my very worst and helped me through all of them just by being there so I didn't have to face them alone! I wish you were here to help me through this one, because I sure do need the help, you left a hole that nobody will ever fill!
